

ADAPTIVE POSITION

Position: Adaptive Team England Manager

Primary Role: Responsible for organising and overseeing all aspects of management for the 2017 England 'adaptive' division programme.

Responsibilities: Managing team selections process, co-ordinating fundraising, managing accounts, managing logistics, co-ordinating any training programme, managing travel team selections process, coordinating media campaigns. Travel with and coach teams. Develop on-going programmes..

Salary: This is a voluntary position.

Travel: World Surfing Games, California, December 2017 (TBC)

Applications: By email to info@surfingengland.org. Please include CV and max 300 words personal statement.

Application deadline: 5pm on April 31st 2017.

Position: Adaptive Team England Coach

Primary Role: Responsible for organising and overseeing all aspects of coaching for the 2017 England 'adaptive' division programme.

Responsibilities: Implementing coaching practices within the campaign, coordinating with the manager on a training programme, lead the management of the travel team's selections process. Develop on-going programmes with the management and coaching team and Surfing England staff.

Salary: This is a voluntary position.

Travel: If self-funded or financial support sourced then attendance of the World Surfing Games, California, December 2017 (TBC).

Applications: By email to info@surfingengland.org. Please include CV and max 300 words personal statement.

Application deadline: 5pm on April 31st 2017.

Position: Adaptive Team England general support staff

Primary Roles: Ad hoc support role to assist management staff.

Responsibilities: When and if able, assist with programme delivery and in support of the management staff and athletes.

Salary: This is a voluntary position.

Travel: Not financially supported for the World Surfing Games, California (Sept 2017) unless self-financed or sponsorship sourced.

Applications: By email to info@surfingengland.org. Please include CV and max 300 words personal statement.

Application deadline: 5pm on April 31st 2017.