English Junior Team 2017 Squad Selection Document:

This document has been created to outline the process of selection for the Team England programme during 2017. The squad, with the help of industry experts (Inc. elite coaches, physiotherapists, nutritionists & judges) will train, compete and develop together across a number of training camps leading to team selection for the 2017 ISA World Games in Japan (September / October).

Selection for the 2017 squad has been determined based on the subsequent criteria

- Automatic squad selection (where applicable) for those individuals who represented Great Britain at the 2016 ISA World Surfing Games in the Azores, Portugal
- Automatic squad selection (where applicable) for those individuals who represented England at the 2016 Euro Juniors (Morocco)
- The three highest ranked English surfers in the U16 & U18 boys (top 5 if a surfer/s has double qualified) divisions based on the standings at the end of the UK Pro Tour 2016
- The three highest ranked English U16 & 18 girls (top 4 if a surfer has double qualified) divisions based on the standings at the end of the UK Pro Tour 2016
- The U16 & U18 English boys and girls who finished with a top three placing at either the British School Championships, British National Championships or the English National Championships in 2016
- Injury Wildcard Selection, an injury wildcard/s will be handed out to any U16 & U18 male or female surfer who was selected in the previous seasons squad but missed over 50% of the training due to injury or illness.

Additional Wildcard applications will be accepted up until Monday 03rd April 2017 for all divisions. Wildcard applicant will need to submit video footage of no older than three months, accompanied with national / international competition results and a personal statement of no longer than 300 words. This will need to be submitted via email to juniorteam@surfingengland.org

NB: The selection takes into consideration those surfers moving from ago category to another.
