

Anti-Doping Information

Introduction

Surfing England support the right of all athletes to compete in sport knowing that they, and their competitors, are “clean”, meaning that they are not taking any drugs or prohibited substances

We believe in “clean sport” and work in partnership with UK Anti-Doping (UKAD) and our International Federation (IF) International Surfing Association <https://isasurf.org> to ensure that the integrity of surfing is protected.

Anti-Doping Rules

Surfing England has in place a set of anti-doping rules that all Athletes and Athlete Support Personnel are bound to and must abide by. The anti-doping rules for Surfing England are consistent with the World Anti-Doping Code (the Code), the core document that harmonises anti-doping policies, rules and regulations within sport globally.

The anti-doping rules of Surfing England are the rules published by UK Anti-Doping (or its successor), as amended from time to time. If you are an Athlete or Athlete Support Person participating under the jurisdiction of Surfing England, then the anti-doping rules of Surfing England apply to you, regardless of what level you participate at. You can find the UK Anti-Doping Rules here.

2021 (current) World Anti-Doping Code

From 1 January 2021, the latest version of the Code came into effect and it’s important that all athletes and athlete support personnel are aware of how this impacts them. For more information on the changes within the 2021 Code, visit UKAD’s website here.

Under the 2021 Code, an athlete may be classified as being “International-Level”, “National-Level” or a “Recreational Athlete” based on their competition level. Further information on these different categories is available on the UKAD website. <https://www.ukad.org.uk/anti-doping-rules>

Anti-Doping Rule Violations

Breaking the anti-doping rules can result in a ban from all sport. The Code outlines the Anti-Doping Rule Violations (ADRVs). Athletes and athlete support personnel need to make sure they are fully aware of these violations, and the consequences of breaking them. For more information and what this means for those individuals, click here.

For information on individuals serving a ban from sport, visit <https://www.ukad.org.uk/sanctions>

The Big Picture - Top Tips for Clean Sport

An athlete is responsible for anything found in their system, regardless of how it got there or whether there is any intention to cheat. All athletes and athlete support personnel should make themselves aware of the risks, so they don't receive an unintentional ban from sport. Useful information for athletes can be found here <https://www.ukad.org.uk/athletes>

UKAD eLearning courses applicable to all roles including Compete Clean+ for athletes are also available here <https://www.ukad.org.uk/cleansporthub>

The Prohibited List

All prohibited substances and methods in Code-compliant sports are outlined in the Prohibited List. The Prohibited List is managed and coordinated by WADA, found on the WADA website here <https://www.wada-ama.org/en/resources/world-anti-doping-code-and-international-standards/prohibited-list>

The List is updated each year, coming into effect on 1st January. It is possible for WADA to make changes to the List more than once a year, but they must communicate such changes three months before they come into effect.

As this list is updated annually, athletes and athlete support personnel should make sure they check it ahead of it coming into effect. More information can be found on UKAD's website here <https://www.ukad.org.uk/athletes/whats-banned-sport-prohibited-list>

Checking Medications

Before taking any medication (whether from a doctor or purchased over the counter), athletes must check to make sure it doesn't contain any prohibited substances. Medications (ingredients or brand name) can be checked online at Global DRO. It is important to note that medications bought in one country may contain different ingredients to the same branded medication in another country. For more information on checking medications, visit UKAD's website here <https://www.ukad.org.uk/checking-medications>

Taking Nutritional Supplements

UKAD always advises a food first approach to nutrition, as there are no guarantees that any supplement product is free from prohibited substances. Athletes can support their training and progress towards their targets by eating and enjoying nutritious food. With a bit of planning, it is possible to eat a delicious and healthy diet made up of a variety of food types at the right time, and in the right quantities.

Athletes should assess the need, the risks and the consequences before deciding to take a supplement, and if they need to use one, visit the Informed Sport website to check whether supplements have been batch-tested. More advice on managing supplement risks can be found on UKAD's Supplement Hub here.

<https://www.ukad.org.uk/supplements-hub>

Applying for a Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE)

If an athlete with a legitimate medical condition needs to use a prohibited substance or method, they will need to apply for a Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE). This is only accepted if there are no other suitable permitted medications or treatments that can be used, and there is a strict, detailed process to determine this. Athletes can find out more information about the TUE process on the UKAD website here <https://www.ukad.org.uk/medicine> and use the TUE Wizard <https://www.ukad.org.uk/tue-wizard> to find out whether they need to apply for a TUE and who to submit their application to.

What happens in a test?

Athletes should feel prepared and know their rights and responsibilities when they are notified to be tested by a Chaperone or Doping Control Officer. Check out this video below on the testing process from start to finish.
